

Segment Civil & Environmental Engineering

Geo Engineering & Exploration Civil Engineering

The value of buildings and infrastructure projects depends on the requirement of the future. But the basics for the success are placed in the present. Professional management from one source ensures a customer oriented, flexible and coordinate realisation. At any one time the focus lies to the whole value-added chain of each product and guarantees maximum functionality and profitability in current process.

Our Performance:

- Design an supervision of geotechnical exploration
- Execution of soil mechanical testings
- Geotechnical reports an risk analysis
- Design for geotechnical constructions for example excavations, foundation and underground infrastructure in all work phase
- Design of dewatering systems for drawing down groundwater
- Feasibility studies (technical and procedural)
- Evaluation and optimization the interface between several trades
- Preparation of high quality tender documents
- Supporting of contract negotiations
- Geotechnical consulting during the execution of construction work
- Supervision of construction work
- Acceptance of the contract work and quality assurance
- Contract and claim management

Our Experience:

- By the beginning you will have qualified specialists, which attend and control your project with first-rate know-how
- You profit by the long-term experience of our specialists in planning and execution so that you have best guaranty in your decisions in project handling
- In all time of your project you will have informations of the status quo and you will have an overview of the budget in all phases
- Holistic approach of projects
- Best planning reliability
- Global experience in design and execution
- Budget, schedule and cost reliability for your project
- Trustfull and cooperativ teamwork with all involved parties

