

Segment Civil & Environmental Engineering

Geo Engineering & Exploration Environmental Engineering

We have comprehensive expertise in dealing with brownfield redevelopment and construction, operation, closure and after-care of landfills, DMT is with it's specialised and in long-time praxis proven services able to create safe and clean habitats with special added value. A trust-based and fair cooperation with all project-partners of the DMT goes without saying.

Our Services:

- Assessment of contaminated sites
- Remediation
- Groundwater monitoring
- VAWS-expert inspections and reports
- Detection of harmful building materials and concepts for deconstruction.
- Landfill construction
- Soil management
- Final design of heaps
- Planning in all phases
- Preparation of high quality tender documents
- Supporting of contract negotiations
- Construction supervision
- Reports and risk assessments
- Budget, cost and schedule control
- Acceptance of services and quality assurance
- Valuation and optimisation of service interfaces
- Contract and claim management

Our Experiences:

- Competent experts with first-rate know-how that will support and manage your project
- Long-term experience in planning and execution
- Holistic approach of projects
- Highest safety regarding decisions for an optimal project execution
- Information on the current project status at all times
- Current cost transparency in all phases
- High planning security
- Budget, schedule and cost reliability for your project

